ORDINANCE-

RESOLUTIONS-

OLD BUSINESS:

The new water meters from the City of Coshocton are still in the working out process.

The Village still looking into Bob Buxton/Lions Club to take over the Memorial Day Parade. The Village along with the Walhonding Valley Fire District has been pursuing various grant donations towards the digital high-resolution sign at the Village square. The final cost looks to be around $39,000.00. The decision will be coming in the next couple months to move forward with splitting the cost between Village of Warsaw and The Walhonding Valley Fire District. The next CDBG Grant Citizens meeting will be held in April at the Walhonding Museum. The date will be decided and posted on facebook and Village website.
